Parashat Korah

Sharei Chesed Congregation

Minnetonka, Minnesota

ברוכים הבאים

Welcome to Sharei Chesed Congregation! We are honored that you could join us this Shabbat as we celebrate the Bar Mitzvah of Michael Gusovsky.

Michael, the son of Anna and Boris Gusovsky, will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah.

Mazal Tov to the proud parents, Anna and Boris, to Michael's sister Michelle, to the grandparents Olga & Benedikt Galperin and Bella & Alex Gusovsky, and the entire family.

You are all cordially invited to the Kiddush luncheon, immediately after services, sponsored by the Gusovsky Family in honor of Michael's Bar Mitzvah.

Summary of Parashat Korach—קורח

In this week's Parasha we read of a rebellion against Moses' leadership. Korah, a cousin of Moses, accuses Moses and Aaron of taking too much power for themselves. Moses being the leader and Aaron being the High Priest does not leave much for anyone else.

Korah claims that Moses could have picked anyone from the community as the entire congregation is holy. Moses defends himself by saying that God chose Aaron. However, if Korah and the 250 individuals who are siding with him feel that they could serve in the Temple, they should each bring incense burners and stand before the Temple, and God will choose the right person for the job. This rebellion ends with Korah being swallowed by the ground and all 250 followers dying in a fire.
